

5.1.17

Our topic this term is 'Poetry in Motion' . Your Home Learning this half-term will be set fortnightly and we will explore a range of poetry.

This fortnight, you will need to write your own Haiku (we learnt about these in class before the December holiday). Haiku poetry is a Japanese tradition and often are written about nature or the seasons, but they don't have to be! You can write about any topic you wish (for example, a sport, Minecraft, a place or a person). Be sure to apply the success criteria below and take a look at the example Haiku in the box below.

Home Learning Deadline: Friday 13th January 2017

I can give my poem a title.

I can include adjectives in my poem.

Each stanza (paragraph) has three lines.

Each stanza follows the syllable pattern of 5-7-5.

I can make choices about the literary techniques that I use, for example similes, metaphors or personification.

Example Haiku:

Cars are so speedy,
Zipping by just like rockets.
When can I drive one?

Child comment:

Parent comment:

Teacher comment:

5.1.17

Our topic this term is 'Poetry in Motion' . Your Home Learning this half-term will be set fortnightly and we will explore a range of poetry.

This fortnight, you will need to write your own Haiku (we learnt about these in class before the December holiday). Haiku poetry is a Japanese tradition and often are written about nature or the seasons, but they don't have to be! You can write about any topic you wish (for example, a sport, Minecraft, a place or a person). Be sure to apply the success criteria below and take a look at the example Haiku in the box below.

Home Learning Deadline: Friday 13th January 2017

I can give my poem a title.

I can include adjectives in my poem.

Each stanza (paragraph) has three lines.

Each stanza follows the syllable pattern of 5-7-5.

I can make choices about the literary techniques that I use, for example similes, metaphors or personification.

Example Haiku:

Cars are so speedy,
Zipping by just like rockets.
When can I drive one?

Child comment:

Parent comment:

Teacher comment: