Topic Projects

Monday- when listening to or reading 'The Very Hungry Caterpillar' can you name the different foods he eats? Can you tell your adult which foods are healthy or unhealthy? Find two different foods in your house and put them in a tub. Leave the food in the tub and see what happens to them over the next two weeks. Do they look the same or different? What has happened to the food?

Tuesday- follow the link for some resources on how to teach your child about staying safe online at home
<https://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/parents/Support-tools/home-activity-worksheets/early-years/> or use the resources in your paper learning pack.

Wednesday- make your own minibeast collage in the style of Eric Carle using different scrap materials from around your house. You could help to rip up the different materials for your picture to help build strong muscles in your hands. You could use the pictures for inspiration!

Thursday- Charlie Challenge enjoys taking on a new challenge. A challenge is where we try something that we find difficult. Can you try a new challenge today? You could ride your bike, button up your coat or pour your own juice at lunch time!
